

4.S65

DECOLONIAL ECOLOGIES

Instructor:	Huma Gupta
Schedule:	R 2-5
Room:	5-216
Units:	3-0-9 G

PERMISSION OF INSTRUCTOR REQUIRED

Neft Daşlari, Layers of Steel and Timber, The Book of Wonders, 2018. © Garine Boghossian

Seminar examining the relationship between political ecology, ecological crises, and the process of (de)colonizing rural, urban, and extraterrestrial spaces. Students will critically analyze contemporary proposals for decolonial ecologies, ranging from ecology thinking in architectural design to indigenous climate plans. Course themes include food systems, decarbonization, abolition, wetlands, and green financing systems, specifically how they are imagined in a decolonized future. Open to undergraduates with instructor's permission.