ARCHITECTURE IN THE ISLAMIC WORLD

FALL 2015

DAY: T & R
TIME: 9:30 - 11:00
ROOM: 3-133
INSTRUCTOR: Christian Hedrick
E MAIL: chedrick@mit.edu
LEVEL: U
UNITS: 3-0-9

Introduces the history of Islamic cultures that spans fourteen centuries and three continents - Asia, Africa, Europe and recent developments in the United States. Studies a number of representative examples, from the House of the Prophet to the present, in conjunction with their urban, social, political, and intellectual environments. Presents Islamic architecture both as a full-fledged historical tradition and as a dynamic and interactive cultural catalyst that influenced and was influenced by the civilizations with which it came in contact.
